

The Biz Quiz 6 July 2009

Questions

1. The Serious Fraud Office is to investigate the collapse of

Northern Rock

Cobra Beer

MG Rover

Lehman Bros

2. Heather Mills has just opened what kind of business?

Designer dress shop

PR consultancy

Debt counselling agency

Vegan restaurant

3. Who is offering staff the chance of long holidays in return for a big pay cut?

BT

Asda

Thomas Cook

Norfolk County Council

4. Carphone Warehouse has agreed to start selling what again?

Brick-sized carphones

Hands-free kits for motorcycles

Vodafone mobile contracts

Garmin SatNavs

5. Where can "followers" now be bought?

Twitter

Marks and Spencer

Motorway service stations

Roadside churches

6. The government has decided to shelve plans to sell part of

National Express

Northern Rock

the NHS

Royal Mail

7. Which transport business is to be nationalised?

West Coast rail service

Channel Tunnel

East Coast rail service

London Underground

8. The Public Health Commission has suggested that VAT be cut on

School textbooks

Overseas holidays

Fast food

Sports equipment

9. What does British Gas plan to install in all UK homes?

Smart gas meters

Free broadband

Energy-efficient radiators

Powers showers

10. What may be frozen to help re-balance the public finances?

Public sector pay

The entire 2009 crop of peas and carrots

Investment in new roads

VAT

Answers

1 MG Rover

2 Vegan restaurant

3 BT

4 Vodafone mobile contracts

5 Twitter

6 Royal Mail

7 East Coast rail service

8 Sports equipment

9 Smart gas meters

10 Public sector pay