

Question Time 18 October 2008

Questions

1. Barack Obama told an audience this week that he came from where?

- Birmingham, Alabama New York
 The Planet of Krypton Hastings, Sussex

2. Barack Obama joked this week that his middle name was in fact:

- Steve Bobby
 Norman Dave

3. David Cameron broke a truce to attack Gordon Brown's record on what on Friday?

- Law and order Defence
 Education The economy

4. Why could MPs be moved out of the House of Commons in the near future?

(Multiple Choice Question, 10 points)

- A complete refit is required Cost cutting measures
 The place is infested with rats They want a bigger debating chamber

5. Gordon Brown asked petrol retailers to do what this week?

- Increase the amount of diesel sold Drop prices
 Increase prices Sell fresher sandwiches

6. The final Presidential Election debate was held where on Thursday night?

- Empire State Building Hofstra University
 One of John McCain's seven mansions The White House

7. Geoffrey Clifton-Brown, a Tory MP, described this week how a bag of what saved his life

- Stuffed toys Chocolate candies
 Cigarettes Coal

8. At PMQs this week William Hague attacked Gordon Brown for his what?

- Hubris Dress sense
 Lack of honour Nose

9. Harriet Harman defended Lord Mandelson over his links to who this week?

- An Indian arms dealer A night club dancer
 A Russian billionaire George Osborne

10. The SNP's annual conference supported a move for what this week?

- A new financial system A tax on English tourists
 Subsidies for private education A ban on Under 21s buying alcohol