

Question Time 26 October 2008

Questions

1. The Russian billionaire who has dominated the politics news this week is...

- ()Ola Deprinol ()Roman Duprioskvi
()Oleg Deripaska ()Yuri Gudanov

2. The Defence Secretary says Britain will win the war against the Taleban in Afghanistan.

Who is he?

- ()Ed Miliband ()Lord Falconer
()Des Browne ()John Hutton

3. Ten years of which government has been dismissed as "a big disappointment" by academics?

- ()Transport policy ()Defence policy
()Education policy ()Foreign policy

4. Which minister was pulled at the last minute from BBC One's Question Time?

- ()Alistair Darling ()Phil Woolas
()George Osborne ()Harriet Harman

5. Where is the by-election on 6 November 2008?

- ()Orpington ()Dunfries
()Bermondsey South ()Glenrothes

6. Gordon Brown called for an inquiry into what during PMQ's?

- Bonuses paid to UK bankers George Osborne's fundraising meetings
- Why there is only one Competition Commission Voter fraud in local elections

7. How did Nathaniel Rothschild break the news about George Osborne's meetings in Corfu?

- He wrote to The Times He wrote on his blog
- He wrote on his Facebook page He appeared on TV-AM

8. This picture of George Osborne at Oxford has re-emerged this week. Which group was he a part of?

- Old Boys Touring Club Notting Hill Club
- Bullingdon Club Varsity Club

9. Why did Barack Obama take two days away from the campaign trail?

- To visit his ill grandmother To prepare his post-election action plan
- He had the flu He had lost his voice

10. Alan Johnson, the health secretary, has announced he will lift the ban on..

- NHS patients paying to top-up their care Turkey twizzlers on hospital menus
- Consultants wearing ties Smoking in wards

Questions

- 1 Oleg Deripaska
- 2 John Hutton
- 3 Transport policy
- 4 Phil Woolas
- 5 Glenrothes
- 6 George Osborne's fundraising meetings
- 7 He wrote to The Times
- 8 Bullingdon Club
- 9 To visit his ill grandmother
- 10 NHS patients paying to top-up their care