

Question Time 1 October 2008

Questions

1. Who, surprisingly, introduced Gordon Brown's speech to the Labour Party Conference?

President Bush

David Cameron

Sarah Brown

The Queen

2. Who decided to 'spend more time with her family' soon after the Labour conference?

Hazel Blears

Ruth Kelly

Jacqui Smith

Harriet Harman

3. Who decided to tone down his speech in order not to have a 'Heseltine' moment?

Ed Milliband

Geoff Hoon

Gordon Brown

David Milliband

4. Which Tory spokesman announced support for 'have-a-go-heroes' at his conference?

Dominic Grieve

George Osborne

David Cameron

Michael Gove

5. George Osborne announced a freeze on what during his speech to the Tory conference?

Military spending

Car tax

Council Tax

Tax on beer

6. Which party announced that they would counsel couples who were about to get married?

Labour

Conservative

Liberal Democrats

SNP

7. Michael Gove outlined which education initiative at the Tory conference?

400 more academies

Abolition of university tuition fees

Abolition of independent schools

A new 'Super A Level'

8. Under Tory plans which group of people could get free teacher training?

Convicts

Newly arrived asylum seekers

Ex-soldiers

Newly-redundant merchant bankers

9. Which party leader told his conference that they were headed for power?

David Cameron

Nigel Farage

Nick Clegg

Lembit Opik

10. The Lib Dem leadership quashed a revolt to pass plans to cut what at their conference?

Defence spending

Tax

NHS waiting lists

CO2 emissions

Answers

1 Sarah Brown

2 Ruth Kelly

3 David Milliband

4 Dominic Grieve

5 Council Tax

6 Conservative

7 400 more academies

8 Ex-soldiers

9 Nick Clegg

10 Tax